

ABSTRACT

ERNITA MAYA

Description of Marriage Satisfaction in Middle Adulthood Women without Children. Faculty of Psychology Undergraduate Program, Tarumanagara University, Jakarta (99 p., P 1-P 2)

Happy marriage is a dream for every couple. Problem in marriage's life, and physical or mental disability should be a factor of divorce. Being civilized children in the family has still important for several families in Indonesia. It was represented by Undang-Undang Pernikahan that given opportunity to husband to marriage for second time if his wife incompetent to pregnant. As a woman without children that marriage for several years they can feel something wrong in her marriage. They not doing their social o'clock as the other woman sp it could be problem in their self and their marriage. The purpose of this research for looking how is marriage satisfaction in middle adulthood women without children. Subjects in this research are middle adulthood women between 40-65 years old. Data was get from interview, then been analyzed based on theory. The result of this research showed that childless in family not influence to marriage satisfaction.

Key term: marriage, middle adulthood woman, children